at 1600 on Saturday 20 Nov 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:

Colder, with some showers but sunshine too, especially well inland.

This Evening and Tonight:

Patchy rain crossing southern areas, then many inland parts dry and clear. Showers affecting western fringes, northern Scotland and northeastern coastal counties, perhaps heavy with hail, and some snow on Scottish hills. Cold and breezy, perhaps a touch of frost.

Sunday:

A colder, breezy day. Some sunshine for all but scattered showers, focused in the north and then the east; showers perhaps heavy with hail, and wintry on higher hills.

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:

Settled and mostly dry but cold until Wednesday when cloud and rain moves southeastwards across northern areas. Cold with blustery showers following in the north, wintry over hills. Brighter elsewhere.
